

Setting Anchors and Sleeves

To ensure that your anchors are properly set in concrete, dig the anchor holes for the goal, light, net post, and any other component that lies close to the form boards, before the form boards are in place. If the form boards are in place first it makes the holes difficult to dig.

